AKRON, O.

Whoever started that famous stuff about June brides, sure must have been born in or around Akron's Mute Colony, for right in our midst, June brides are springing up so fast that it's hard to keep track of them.

BAMBERG-WILSON.—Mr. Harvey Wilson, the popular swimming Mute who is always around when there is any kind of a prize offered in swimming contests, decided that he was tired of swimming alone, and so skipped out for his girl's home town, Ada, Ohio and was quietly married, on June 4th. Only a few of the intimate friends and relatives of the couple were present. The happy couple are now honeymooning, and here's hoping that their journey through life be one grand honeymoon trip.

SAWHILL-SHANNON.—R. Shannon, another of our beloved bachelors, is one no more. He packed his grip and fled not long ago, and was married on June 11th, to Miss Edith Sawhill, at the bride's home town. Congratulations to them and may they enjoy the same blessing that we wished upon the Wilsons.

Mr. C. Ladd, another of our young men, has took upon himself a bride, but as he puts it, he puts one over on the whole gang of us and has been married for six months before any of us found it out. His bride is a hearing lady. Go to it lad, say we.

So far as we know, that is the entire list of Benedicts for the month so far, but the Lord alone knows how many more of the young fellows will pull their stakes and move to the happy hunting grounds with a partner to cheer them up now that the country has gone dry.

On Sunday afternoon, June 1st, Mrs. N. Watts Schmidt presented her husband Chas. with a bouncing baby boy, weighing seven and one-fourth pounds, and since June 1st, nobody has been able to see Chas. expect for a trail of dust, for the minute he is off work he beats it home to mother and the baby. Both of whom are doing fine.

Ashland D. Martin, our genial Director, returned to Akron last week, after a three weeks' business trip, which carried him through Washington, Virginia, Kentucky and Indiana. He reports a pleasant trip, and that he expects quite a few of the younger mutes to come to Goodyear, after their schools close. While in Indianapolis, he took in the Auto races, and immediately upon his return to Akron, he went out and purchased a Chevrolet, and tried to turn Auto racer himself. So far his only great feat has been to turn the corner on two wheels, and although he has tried to go over the hills on high, hasn't had much success.

In the A. I. A. A. track meet held on Sieberling field on Memorial day, Hume Le Battiste, Goodyear's Mute Indian, treated the other track men and the spectators to one grand surprise by walking off with the 440 and 1-mile relay. In the first race Battiste got a bad start, but his steady long strides soon overtook all his opponents, and he won by a few yards. As anchor man in the relay, however, he showed some real running, catching a man that had 10 yards start on him, and then beating him out by a good 15 yards at the finish.

Goodyear hoped to send Battiste to the National track meet at Gary, Indiana, July 4th, but the spirit of his forefathers bid Battiste come, so he packed his wigwag, and is now sojourning in the far west, having a job pitching for some ball team in Nebraska, but will return to Akron in the fall, and show people how he can play football.

No sooner had Battiste gotten out of sight than up bobbed Dummy Taylor. He has been on a vacation in Kansas, and turned up sporting a coat of tan so dark that at first some of us were almost sure it was some con trying to impersonate the famous Dummy, but one look at him in the Goodyear baseball uniform convinced us all that it was really and truly our own Dummy back. Besides pitching for the Goodyear regulars, he will also pitch for the silent team whenever the opportunity offers.

At the present rate of progress the available crop of bachelors in Akron will soon be exhausted. To-date four couples have been married in the last month, and more are coming soon, the latest weddings to take place being those of Miss Margaret Kau, Gallaudet, '19, to Mr. H. W. Smith, '18. They were married on the sly on the afternoon of Thursday, June 19th, and are now making their home in Akron. They plan to leave on their summer vacation, or rather their honeymoon tour, in a week or two. The other couple to hook up for better or worse was Miss Blanche McBee and Mr. David C. Williams, both of Ohio. They are still blushing and hiding themselves from the public eye, but we presume they will be over their excitement before another week goes by. H. Wilson and bride have returned from their wedding tour, and Harvey is beginning to become normal once more, although he is still subject to a rosy red complexion whenever anyone mentions newweds.

Not being of the sort that allow the other fellow to get the move on him, Chas. C. Marshall, '17, of Football and baseball fame, followed Martin's footsteps, and purchased himself a car. (He said he had rather have a car than a wife, as he can always have the last word with a car, cuss the blamed thing out whenever he wants to, but could never be happy with a woman.) He is at present occupied with his car and baseball, being bent on putting both Barney Oldfield and Hal Chase out of business.

Last Saturday night a dance and social were given by the Frats at the A. I. U. Hall, and some three hundred mutes were present to take part in the fun, in spite of the intense heat.

The fond hopes of T. E. Hill were at last realized at the Frat dance, when Fancher, director and leader, led the band that Hill has long dreamed of, out to the middle of the floor, and proceeded to entertain with waltzes, marches, etc., to the great delight of the Social Committee and all present as, the music made dancing a great pleasure. After playing a few pieces, Messrs. Fancher and Levy, of Fanwood School, entertained with the Drum Corp drill. Active members of the band at present are Fred Fancher, Director; T. E. Hill, organizer; Nathan Schwartz, Messrs. Levy and Krishinsky, of New York, F. McDonnell, Mr. Hower, Steele Weiss, and Pfunder.

Among recent arrivals in Akron, were Messrs. Vernon Birk, Gallaudet, '13, teacher from the North Carolina, Grover Farquhar, also a graduate of College and teaching in the Oklahoma School, Luther Rhoades, ex-'21, teaching in Alabama, and Mr. E. V. Petersa, teacher from the Mississippi School. They are all at present working for Goodyear, and some of them will more than likely settle down here, and remain in Akron, as the teaching job is becoming less attractive each year.

Arrivals from Gallaudet for the summer vacation were: Misses Kau, Dodd, Wallace, Atkins, Miss Dodd is the only one that will work in the factory, the others merely stopping off for a visit and one to become a blushing June bride. The men to come from the College were Messrs. Wilson, Rosen, Frewing, Mays, Davies, Rebal, Hartin, Downes, Shawl, Haley, LaFountain, Paxton and Werner.

Mr. Arthur Classen met with a very bad accident one day about a month ago, while working in the pit. Somehow two of the steel cores used for building tires upon fell over and caught his foot while he was rolling the third core across the floor. He walked to the hospital and did not think much of it, but an examination showed several of the bones to be broken, and later an operation was necessary to remove the rotten bones. It will probably be a month before Arthur will be able to leave the hospital.

Mr. Jehovich had the misfortune to sprain his ankle in the baseball game at Canton, and unfortunately he has not joined the Goodyear Relief Association and was unable to secure any compensation whatever during the time off. Had he joined the Relief he would have been paid his entire wages while out of work.

Those two accidents ought to teach the rest of Goodyear mutes to play safe and join the Relief Association, so that they can protect their families and themselves.

Fred Fancher has decided to sell his Cadillac Automobile and buy a Ford Truck. He says that there is a lot of money in the trucking business and that he might as well get in on some of it.

What will no doubt be the biggest Frat Picnic ever held in Ohio, will be pulled off on July 27th, when the Akron Div. No. 55, gives a picnic for all the Frats, who care to come, at Myers Lake, near Canton, Ohio. A splendid program is being arranged by the committee, and not a dull moment will be on the entire day. So come on, all of you Frats who love swell times. It was originally planned to hold the picnic at Ruggles Beach on Lake Erie, but as the Tractor Co refused to grant the use of special cars for the occasion the project was given up and Myers Lake chosen.

The Silent's baseball team is going along right merrily at present having won the last four starts, and according to the Manager they are going to win all the rest of their games, and cop the championship rag this year. Next Sunday, June 29th, they meet the strong Noakers team from Canton, and to win from them would place the Silent team in the same class as the Big Goodyear team. Later in the year these two teams will meet, and then watch the hair fly.

The arrival of the College boys, Downes, Wilson, Rebal and Hartin, has added greatly to the teams batting strength and also to their fielding.

Messrs. Lenz and Cherry, two of the boys who are living at the Lake this year have purchased a motor boat and crowds of the Silent fellows crowd her to overflow every Sunday and have just a yell of a time, as they put it. About 50 of the younger fellows live out there every summer.

Goodyear's new Club house rapidly being completed, and before fall the Silents will have a place in one of the greatest playhouses in the world. The Gym, when completed will contain everything from a checker board up to a shooting gallery, and will accommodate about five thousand people at one time.

The Mute Squadron was on hand one hundred percent strong at the flying Squadron Banquet, and were among the loudest cheerers there, when the announcement was made of a raise of ten percent in their salaries for the current year.

Some one recently asked me why my writing was so poor, and not having an answer ready for him then, I have decided to copy an answer I once saw girl write in a letter to her sweetheart. "You will have to excuse my writin deer, cause

"My pen is worn,
My ink is pale,
My hand it shakes,
Like a puppy dog's tail."

A Warning to Deaf-Mutes intend ing to come to Akron in search of work. Before you pack up your old kit-bag and hit the trail for Rubberville, be sure you are physically O. K. Get a doctor to examine you; better pay a dollar for an examination than to come all the way to Akron and then find that you cannot get a job, as was the case of a fellow who came all the way from Texas, but was turned down on account of poor eyesight. Of course I want you all to come, but be sure you will be able to secure a job before you do come. Play safety first and you will never regret it.

BASEBALL.

To date the team has played five games, winning four of them and losing one. Although they need a little polish yet they are playing a good game, and the way they pelt the old pill sure is good for sore eyes. Just keep your eyes on the Goodyear Silents. 'Ats all.

Here are results from recent games.

A Memorable Day Among the Philadelphia Deaf.

REV. C. O. DANTZER CELEBRATES THE FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS PASTORATE AT ALL SOULS' CHURCH.

Saturday, June 7th, was a red letter day among the deaf of Philadelphia, who for some weeks past had been planning to remember in some fitting manner the fifteenth anniversary of the pastorate of their dear minister, Rev. C. O. Dantzer. On Sunday, June 1st, Rev. C. O. Dantzer in his evening sermon referred to the fact that on that date fifteen years ago he had left New York to come to Philadelphia, as pastor of All Souls'. He referred to the many gifts of friendship he had received before leaving New York, and of how many tokens he had to this day, to show the love and appreciation of his Rochester, N. Y., friends. We, his present congregation, only smiled in our sleeves, for you see we knew that presently he would have something "nice" to remember us all by too.

As his labors among the deaf here really dated from 7th, it was decided to make that date a memorable one in a double sense. June 7th has always been the date of our annual strawberry festival, and so it was arranged that it should be the date of presenting to our pastor some suitable remembrance of his fifteen years of faithful service among us.

The evening (Saturday) found the church crowded, the fact that ice cream was to take the place of the too expensive strawberry failing to damp the ardor of any one.

The programme opened with games, engineered by Mrs. Geo. T. Sanders, who by the way can generally find something new and interesting to amuse the public. "Tudor sports," embracing aeroplane race, blowing cornucopias along a string, weight lifting, standing on one foot, and raising a large cornucopia with the teeth; relay races, passing clothes pins to see who could get through a certain number in the shortest time, all proved very amusing to both young and old. The prizes too were just "too sweet for anything," being boxes of Wilbur's chocolate buds.

Long before the young folks had grown weary of these games, it was time to begin the more important feature of the evening. Therefore Mrs. Sanders mounted to the platform of the theatre, and called for four of the older and taller men to come up beside her, as she had a new game to propose. Mr. Daniel Paul, Mr. Geo. T. Sanders, Mr. Buxton and Rev. Mr. Dantzer answered the lady's call, when she announced that the game called for the blindfolding of the four gentlemen before her. She therefore, assisted by Mrs. M. J. Syle, proceeded to blindfold them, but after Rev. Mr. Dantzer was really blindfolded she dismissed the other three men, and the reverend gentleman was left standing alone in his glory.

The second curtain of the theatre was then quickly rolled up, and Mr. Dantzer was gently pushed backward into an elegant and luxurious Grandfather chair. As the gentleman felt himself (as he thought) from falling. The blindfolding handkerchief was quickly removed from his eyes, and he sprang to his feet, his face so dazed and bewildered, the audience clapped and laughed till they grew tired.

Mrs. Syle then stepped forward and made a few remarks to the effect that the chair was the gift of his people as a token of love and esteem covering fifteen years of service among us. She then called upon Miss Downey, who came forward and made the address of welcome in behalf of all present. The address was as follows:—

DEAR PASTOR:—In behalf of your dear congregation and friends I am here to greet you and to congratulate you upon having passed fifteen successful years among us.

Philips Brooks once said "a man's life is not to be measured by the number of years that he has lived, but by the amount of good which he has accomplished in them."

Fifteen years ago to-day we welcomed you to All Souls' Church as its new pastor. To-day we are here to greet you once more and to show our appreciation of your work among us.

Fifteen years, if spent solely in one's own pleasure would seem a very short time, but if spent in laboring for the good of one's fellow-men might seem a very long time.

You have spent these 15 years in visiting the sick, in comforting the broken-hearted, and in carrying the great responsibility of a large and scattered parish.

Fifteen years has seen this church erected, it has seen a largely-attended Bible class established to supplement the church work, it has seen many old and familiar faces pass from us forever; it has seen the inmates of the Home at Doylestown cheered and comforted by your monthly visit there.

To one who has faithfully followed in his Master's footsteps our Lord's "well done" will ever more than compensate for the adverse criticism and the want of appreciation of those who either will not or can not understand us.

To-night your people stand before the dial of time that has ticked off fifteen years of kindly, profitable intercourse among us.

We hope that fifteen years hence we may be permitted again to assemble beneath our loved church roof, to greet you and wish God-speed through fifteen more years of labor in that field which Jesus Himself bade His disciples work in until His last coming.

Rev. Mr. Dantzer was then informed that a Davenport accompanied the chair, but had not been delivered from the factory in time for the presentation. It was sent to the home of Rev. Mr. Dantzer on Monday, and with the chair proved a very handsome and substantial gift. Mr. Dantzer, though utterly taken by surprise, made a happy speech in which he thanked his congregation for the acceptable gift. After the serving of ice-cream and cake the evening closed, to be remembered by all present as one of the pleasantest and brightest milestones along life's journey.

GERTRUDE M. DOWNEY.

WEDDING BELLS.

CONNOLLY—YOUNG.

At the Church of St. Ursula, Chester Hill, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., afternoon of June 29, Miss Minnie Elizabeth Young was married to Mr. John Jerome Connolly. Handicapped in the language used by his young parishioner, Rev. John J. McCabe, rector of St. Ursula's, consulted an Ephpheta Good Works' Directory. Noting "Sign Linguist" next the name of Rev. Edward J. O'Mahoney, assistant at St. Rose's Church, down near the Jumel Mansion, he immediately dispatched a S. O. S. call to his friend, Rev. John R. Mahoney, D. D., rector thereof. Thus Father "O," the friend in need, was whizzed in a modern coach and four (a six-cyl. Packard) to the party waiting at the church. In less time than the Lino operator can set this up, the young couple were sent on their way rejoicing, with a double blessing from the bride's pastor and Father O'Mahoney, who tied the knot. In his after-tying sermon, the young priest had everyone of the wedding party on tip-toe as he unravelled in spoken and sign language simultaneously a very happy sermon on the joy and sanctity of the Sacrament of Matrimony.

The bride looked handsome in a costume of white satin, with pearl trimmings. The bridal veil was held by a wreath of mistletoe. She carried a huge bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

A wedding reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, where the young couple were honored with congratulations. They will live at Elizabeth, N. J.

A happy prelude to the wedding occurred the Sunday previous, at St. Rose's Church, where Mr. Connolly was received into the Catholic faith. Father O'Mahoney prepared him for the reception and performed the baptismal rites. Mrs. William Smith and J. Francis O'Brien were sponsors.

Arthur B. Furrow Pardoned

Barred for life from the world of sound and language is misfortune enough to bow the head and heart of any man. A sentence of thirty-five years' close confinement in state prison would seem an insuperable obstacle to final regeneration on this earth of such a man already twenty-nine years old, but in the case of Arthur B. Furrow pardoned last Monday by the board of pardons and once more a free man, who has emerged at the age of forty-eight, it does not seem to be.

Indeed, not expecting a pardon, he has been looking forward until last Monday to twelve more years in prison before the natural commutation of his sentence because of good behavior would let him go free. And this deaf and dumb man of middle age, whose presence the warden at the prison said he would miss, was daily treasuring deep down in his heart the hope that in twelve more years he would be able to see the funny Charlie Chaplin more often than is permitted at the prison. For that hope, he has been during nineteen years one of the best prisoners at Wethersfield, and he has put away even the solace of the tobacco allowed. The story of Arthur B. Furrow in some ways reads like that of a second Count of Monte Cristo, in his return to what little he can enjoy of his freedom.

FURROW'S STORY.

Nineteen years ago this June, Arthur B. Furrow, a deaf-mute, 29 years old, was sentenced by Judge Prentice in the superior court in Hartford to thirty-five years in the state prison, charged with committing rape at North Granby. "The Courant" at that time said it was the longest sentence imposed on a person in this county, outside of imprisonment for life, in many years.

Mr. Furrow was one of the five cases pardoned by the board of pardons last Monday. The warden, C. C. McClaughry, called the attention of the board of directors of the prison to this case, and said Furrow was one of the best prisoners in the institution. Upon his recommendation the board of directors united in petitioning the board of pardons in behalf of Mr. Furrow. The man was pardoned, and the warden says he will miss his trusted helper when he leaves the prison.

Mr. Furrow was born deaf at Agawam, Mass., forty-nine years ago, and was admitted to the American School for the deaf at Hartford when 9 years old. While at school his record was good, according to John E. Crane, his teacher, the only exception being that his temper would get the better of him at times. When he left school, his home conditions were such that he was forced to shift for himself and he secured employment as a farm-hand. He took to drinking occasionally and it was while he was inflamed with liquor that he committed the assault on a woman named Humphrey, using a pocket knife on the woman. She succeeded in escaping from him and in reaching a neighbor's house. He did not attempt to follow her, but tried to commit suicide by cutting his throat. He then attempted to hang himself.

A LONG SENTENCE.

When Mr. Furrow was tried, an interpreter from the school was present to tell him what was said. He is unprepossessing in appearance, being short, rather humpbacked, with small, weak eyes, so that he has to squint at persons who wish to talk with him. When asked by the judge if he was guilty, the interpreter repeated the question to him and he bowed his head and said in signs that he was sorry. The judge looked at him and asked him if he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced. Judge Prentice assigned Edward M. Day as counsel, who conversed with the accused with the aid of the interpreter. In reply to the judge's question, Mr. Furrow said he had done wrong, that he was sorry and he wished forgiveness.

"Thirty-five years" said the judge in reply to State's Attorney Eggleston's request that the accused be given practically a life sentence.

Since Mr. Furrow's incarceration in Wethersfield he has been almost forgotten. He has two sisters and a brother near Springfield, Mass., and had a visit four years ago from a sister, the first in fifteen years. He has been befriended by Mr. Langdon, a highly respected deaf resident of Windsor, by Rev. George H. Hefflon, the deaf missionary in this city, and by John E. Crane, his former teacher at the American School for the Deaf.

When visited by Walter G. Durian, instructor of printing at the American School for the Deaf, and Edward Perkins Clarke, a former teacher of the deaf, Mr. Furrow cordially welcomed his visitors. He said he had tried to obey the prison rules, that he read Bible everyday and that he did not use tobacco in any form, although the prisoners are allowed the use of tobacco if they desire. He hoped by keeping up his good record that he would gain his freedom in twelve years more, and then he would go back to Agawam and get a job as farmhand. He would never touch liquor again, he said, and seemed most penitent for his misdeed.

When the assistant warden was asked about his record he said: "Oh he is all right. The only thing the matter with him is his temper and that is nothing serious. He is a tierman and his duties are to keep a certain section of cells clean. When they are soiled unnecessarily he is much provoked."

When asked if the other inmates took advantage of Furrow's deafness in anyway he said not at all.

"IN TWELVE MORE YEARS."

Mr. Furrow writes an excellent hand. There was one feature of prison life which meant more to him than to the other 600 inmates and that was the "movies." Shut out from everything else except reading, he looked forward, pathetically to the "movies." He talked about the comical Charlie Chaplin and smiled when informed by one of his visitors that the latter had not seen the famous comedian yet, although Mr. Furrow had seen him. As the party left the prison, their minds kept reverting to the picture of Furrow saying in the sign language, "I'll be patient and in 1925 I'll be free."

A PATHETIC PICTURE.

Furrow was convicted before the days of indeterminate sentences. In looking through a report of the directors of the prison of all the prisoners sentenced there during the previous year, only five of 139 were sentenced to more than ten to twenty years, and of those who received indeterminate sentence outside of life and death, only one received more than five years' sentence. The picture of this unfortunate deaf man with a sentence of sixteen more years hanging over his head, doing as near right as he knew, and even refusing the so-called solace of the use of tobacco in his loneliness, started his friends to circulate a petition in his behalf among the deaf and those interested in the deaf in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

This petition was circulated by Rev. George H. Hefflon and Edward P. Clark and was signed by ninety-one persons and read as follows:—

"To the Board of Pardons Connecticut State Prison:—

"We, the undersigned, do hereby petition your honorable board to grant the request of Arthur B. Furrow for pardon, believing the ends of justice have been subserved."

Superintendent E. P. Clarke of the state free employment office had also gotten into communication with Superintendent Allen of the Springfield state employment office, who promised to help place Mr. Furrow on a farm near Springfield. In the meantime State Policeman Alfred L. Rudd of New London, who has a farm at Center Groton, became interested in Furrow and offered him a place on his farm, which Furrow gladly accepted.—Hartford Courant, June 14.

The June number of the Typographical Journal contains the following item in its Louisville, Ky., correspondence:

"Robert Irick, chairman of the the label committee of No. 10 for years, has passed to the other side. He was found in bed with life extinct Saturday morning, May 17. In all the years that he had been in charge of the label work he exerted his energies to the utmost. Though handicapped by the loss of his hearing and speech, he more than made up for these deficiencies in sincere work, his one aim being to see that all printing carried the union label. Always willing to perform any duty, or to accommodate any one where he could be of service, he will be sadly missed. He was heart and soul in the great campaign to organize Louisville and has added more than his share of work to bring about that consummation. In his going No. 10 loses one of its hardest and sincerest workers. We shall miss him."

North Dakota.

June 17-19.

The second convention of the North Dakota Association of the Deaf was held in Devils Lake June 17-19 with an attendance of forty-two active members. Although a trifle smaller than the attendance at the first reunion in 1916, it was not a whit behind in enthusiasm, co-operation and harmony. Delegates began to come in Monday evening, some from Montana, Nebraska, Minnesota and Canada. Through the kindness of the superintendent and Board of Control, the use of the school buildings were thrown open for their use, and better arrangements for their comfort and happiness could not have been made elsewhere.

The first meeting was called to order Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, in the auditorium by Second Vice-President A. B. Knutson, the President being unable to attend. Prayer was offered by Sup't Read, after which Mr. Rollo F. Hunt of Devils Lake was introduced as one of the best state's attorneys in the state, and he delivered an address of welcome, pointing out what a valuable asset the School for the Deaf is to the state, but the fact that deaf men and women are doing their share in the world as successful citizens means more to the state than fine buildings and equipment. Mr. Hunt recalled a visit he once made in a Minnesota town where a convention was being held. The mayor of the town in his address of welcome extended the freedom of the city to the visitors and assured them that they had free access to any place except the city hall, which was reserved for the use of the citizens of that town only. Mr. Hunt said that he liked the tone of that welcome, and wished to extend the same to the graduates and former pupils of the North Dakota School for the Deaf. Sup't Read also gave an address which follows:

"Friends: Last Wednesday was 'Home-going Day' to the hundred and more children who left our care for that of father and mother. Today it is 'Home-coming Day' to you who have spent the early years of your life within these walls. You have come back to your Alma Mater. What pleasant memories cluster around that word.

Some of you have been away many years. You have taken your places in the varied walks of life with credit to yourselves and honor to your Alma Mater. We are proud of you and rejoice in your achievements. We welcome you back. It gives us great pleasure on this occasion to see the faces of so many at the opening session of the second triennial reunion. We have here this morning representatives of the first graduating class, the class of 1900, on down to the lusty class of 1919, whose motto you see on the wall.

Over 350 deaf boys and girls of the state have enjoyed the benefits of an education in the twenty-nine years of the history of the school, nearly fifty of whom completed the course of study laid out for them. That you have made good there is no question of doubt. Even the day dreams of some of you have come true. The young man of the class of 1911 who took for the subject of his essay—The Automobile and the Farmer—has realized his dream. He came to the reunion in his machine. Others came by the same route.

You were once boys and girls here living under rules and regulations. Today the freedom of the school is yours. Note the change in the material plant which time has brought about, hunt out your favorite haunts, live your younger lives over again. May this occasion be but the forerunner of many more happy reunions."

In response to the addresses of welcome Miss Orta Kinyon of the class of 1919, said:—

"Mr. Chairman, Gentlemen and Ladies: Having been called upon to answer in behalf of the graduates and former students of the North Dakota School for the Deaf, the kind words of welcome that have been given us, I wish to assure you that the statements you have expressed are more than appreciated by each and every member of the school present at the meeting. We are indeed glad to be able to meet here again as we did in 1916, when the first reunion was held, and I hope this reunion will be as successful as the former one.

Words fail to express our gratitude to the Board of Control for allowing us the use of the school as our meeting place and for the interest they have shown in our school.

Before closing let me say that I hope all the people who have done us the honor to attend our reunion will have an enjoyable time, and that we shall all meet again at the next reunion.

May the school prosper in the future, as in the past, and may it continue to maintain the high standard it has attained; and may its graduates and former pupils ever be an honor as now to the School and to the deaf."

John A. DeLance, the President of the Association, was not present, but he had prepared an address which was read by the presiding officer. The address follows:—

"The Vice President, Ladies and Gentlemen:—

The little talk that I had in mind to give to-day was prepared with the idea that I would deliver it in person, but since the reverse obtains, I shall have to abbreviate considerably over my original intentions.

I regret the fact I am unable to attend the second reunion, as the demand for workers of my trade is so extreme at present it prohibits me to leave. But I trust you all shall have a most enjoyable time.

The second reunion of the graduates and former pupils of the North Dakota School for the Deaf is in progress. I can imagine the handshakes and greetings and the general convention spirit about you.

For a while there were dark clouds of doubt as to this reunion. The great world war has taken away so many young men it was almost impossible for some of us to leave our daily occupations and come here. But thanks to the Good Lord, the war has ended!

'Me and Gott' have dissolved partnership! The end came with a crash and bang just as it started about five years ago. The wreckage of autocracy is strewn all over the old world. Kings, kaisers, sultans, czars, princes, have gone out of fashion. Right has supplanted might, and the mantle of liberty is slowly setting over the world's oppressed.

Democracy wins. The fight has ended! The war has given us deaf people a chance to show our hearing brothers and sisters that we can do things just as well as they can—if not better. We have been admitted to occupations which were previously closed to us. And I believe all of you are willing to stand up and say you learned your trade at school.

We have one of the best schools for the deaf in the country here. We have some of the best equipped trade shops in the state. And the instructors who taught us and are teaching the future generations are what we are able to call "our pride."

We are fortunate in having the second reunion held at the school. We love to go over the school buildings and dig up memories of the past.

Here we can hunt of our favorite haunts of the days gone by, take a peek at our school-rooms where we learned readin', ritin' and 'rithmetic,' and possibly have a chat with our 'best girl' of former days.

There is the picturesque Chautauqua to visit where we can bathe in the waters of perpetual youth, witness a ball game and buy an ice cream soda for the best girl.

I have carefully gone over the constitution and by-laws of the association, and have compared them with other associations, and I wish to tell you that, with improvements as time passes, we shall, in time, have one of the best deaf organizations in the country.

May the second reunion be a success and the association prosper in the future! May it grow to be one of the best organizations for the deaf in America! The North Dakota Association for the Deaf, God bless her!"

Mr. and Mrs. Read were host and hostess at the reception which was given in the evening, Mrs. L. A. Long, Mrs. W. H. Rocking, and Mrs. Sheridan, assisting in receiving the guests.

Wednesday morning was devoted to the transaction of business. In the afternoon the members were the guests of the management of the Grand Opera at the regular matinee, after which was shown the film of the Minnesota School for the Deaf. This one made a hit with our crowd. It was like a visit to Fairbault and its famous school. Pupils were shown in military uniforms, drilling on the campus, marching from one building to another, in a football scrimmage, at work in some of the industrial departments, etc. Mr. A. L. Spear, the founder and first superintendent of the North Dakota School for the Deaf was also shown in this film and was recognized by some earlier pupils of this school.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Ringuette tendered a reception to the delegates. Mr. Ringuette enjoys the honor of being the first graduate of the school. During the intermission at the business meeting Thursday morning, Mr. L. A. Long suggested that Mr. Stinar might have something to say about the benefits derived from joining the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf, as he was the only Frat with a pin of the organization at our convention. Mr. Stinar said that it was while in Omaha, Neb., that he joined the society and explained under what conditions one could become a member and the benefits were. Mr. Sheridan said that the social side of the organization was an important one where many deaf people could come to gather in such cities as Chicago, Philadelphia, Minneapolis, St. Paul, etc., that it would not be quite so successful in North Dakota cities, the largest city having but few names of deaf persons in its directory, but he was of the opinion that membership in the N. F. S. D. was one of the best things for the deaf of North Dakota as a wise provision against some future contingency. The most important thing is the life insurance feature. That alone would be compensation enough.

The following officers were elected: President, Gilman T. Nordhagen of Grand Forks; First Vice-President, Oscar Tweto of Abercrombie; Second Vice-President, Miss Orta Kinyon of Steele; Secretary, Arthur Anderson of McVillie; and Treasurer, Miss Olga Anderson of Devils Lake.

Resolutions were adopted, expressing appreciation and conveying thanks to the Superintendent and Board of Control for the use of the buildings as the place of meeting; for courteous and valuable assistance extended by the Superintendent and Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Read; for Hon. R. F. Hunt's address of welcome on the opening day, and for the kind sentiment expressed therein; for the gift of Mr. D. F. Bangs, formerly Superintendent of the North Dakota School, a framed picture of himself which he has, at the request of the Executive Committee, presented to the Association to be preserved along with other pictures of the present and former superintendents of the North Dakota School, and for the very kind words of encouragement and good wishes for the welfare of the deaf of North Dakota; for the entertainment at the matinee at which the film of the Minnesota School for the Deaf, etc., was shown; and for the untiring efforts of the presiding officer A. B. Knutson, and Secretary, Miss Inga Anderson, in assuming the burden of preparation for the convention.

Dinner was served early, and that over the guests were taken to Chautauqua seven miles distant in the cars in which some of them come, four in all, and the motor truck carried the heaviest single load. The general attractions at the Lake had not begun yet, but there were places for refreshments and the bathing house was open and doing a thriving business. Five or six of our party ventured in and enjoyed a cool bath on a hot day. At five-thirty the jolly party left the grounds, returning in time for supper.

"The Red Lantern" screened at the Grand, and a dance in the dining hall, were the last entertainments of the evening, and in the morning most of the guests gathered up their belongings, grip and baggage, and departed for their various destinations, carrying with them pleasant memories of the happy occasion. Being in its embryonic stage, the association has made the social more prominent than the business affairs; but as time goes on, it is expected that the burden will also grow, and the Association will, like many other similar associations all over the country, take an active part in matters affecting the welfare of the deaf of North Dakota and of the Nation.

INDIANA.

The Broad of Directors of our school have appointed Prof. O. M. Pittenger of the State Normal at Muncie to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Supt. R. O. Johnson. Prof. Pittenger enjoys an excellent reputation as an educator, but we are inclined to think that he will find this a new problem that will tax his resources to the limit. The Board has acted according to what it considers best, yet we cannot help wishing that the individual members thereof had a little more first hand knowledge of the inner working of the school. The change has been made, however, and we can only hope and work for the best.

The wedding of Mr. Earl J. Hinton and Miss Dora R. Ambuehl of this city was a social event that will long be remembered by those who were among those present. The ceremony was performed at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church by Rev. Arthur A. Norris, at 6.30 P. M. Wednesday, June 18th. The bride was attended by Miss Goldie E. Parker as bridesmaid, and the groom was attended by Miss Carl Reincke as best man. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the South Side Turners Hall a short distance away, where the bridal reception was held and a sumptuous wedding supper served. Among the deaf people present were Messrs. and Mesdames N. Lee Harris, Glenn D. Weimer, Ray Hiatt, R. Harry Phillips, William Hinkley, Harry V. Jackson, and Arthur H. Norris, Miss Emma Hilmeyer and Lee Gardner. The happy couple left the same evening for Richmond, Ind., which will be the first stop on a trip that will take them to several points in Indiana and Ohio. They are coming back, however, for the big doings at the Sycamores on July 4th. They will be at home to friends at 1902 S. Meridian Street after the 4th.

Elmer L. Stueck has been laid up with an infected hand for some time, but is now back at work.

Roy Hiatt is a recent addition to our deaf population. Roy got tired of rusticiating down at Terre Haute and is now employed as a shoe repairer at Pink's Shoe Store.

Walter Stoltz has bought himself a mess of grief in the shape of a Maxwell touring car. At last accounts Walter seemed to have the best of the argument, but he has not seen the repair bills yet. Cheer up, boy, maybe you will be that lucky mortal that never has to pay the piper.

Owing to post-bellum conditions the Indiana re-union due this summer has been indefinitely postponed. It is probable that a re-union will be next summer, but the Association officers are not in position to make definite announcement of the fact at this time.

The Sycamores held its official grand opening on June 1st. Quite a crowd was on hand to see the place, and all went home praising the place and everything connected with it. It was an especially happy day for President Harris, as such a club has been his dream for years, and it is largely due to his energy that the club is now firmly established and an assured success.

J. "Bill" Seitz, President of the I. A. D., has pulled stakes once more and hid himself to the windy city by the pond. "Bill" is some printer, and we understand that he has a fine job in Chicago.

Thomas Lyster and John Virgin were trying out the latter's new motorcycle recently, and had a collision with a big oil truck. Lyster was almost instantly killed and Virgin was badly injured in the mix up. Witnesses state that the motorcycle approached a street crossing at the rate of forty miles an hour, and the driver of the truck, who was driving in the cross street, did not see it in time to stop. The cycle was reduced to scrap and the truck so badly damaged that it had to be taken away on a service truck. "Watch your step."

Ben Schowe and A. D. Martin, of Akron, have both been in our city recently. We suppose they were looking for men to take back to Rubbertown. That is all right, boys, we appreciate the invite, but little old Indiana is a pretty good place to hang out these days. The deaf around here are all busy and prosperous.

Ernest W. Hall is the latest deaf man to start a shoe shop in Indianapolis. He has just opened a shop on the west side and is doing well. Indianapolis recently stuck another tail feather in her cap, by giving the Shriners of North America the time of their giddy young lives. The occasion was the annual convention of the Imperial Council and was pronounced by old timers to be the best ever held. You can't beat Hoosier hospitality. Come on over in 1924 and see us prove it. Indianapolis is after the 1924 convention of the N. F. S. D., horse, foot and dragons. Sic 'em, Towser. INDIANAPOLIS, 1924.

Two deaf-mutes, Louis Hallen, of No. 1217 East Preston street, Baltimore, and Pepte Baller, of No. 313 East Seventy-second street, New York, have received license to marry. 'Allem is forty-nine and his bride-to-be thirty-nine, both of whom have been divorced.—N. Y. Evening Journal, June 11.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER NOTES

Xavier's silent parishioners are hopeful of the appointment of a new pastor along towards the end of July, when changes among the Jesuit Fathers will be announced.

Success attended the closing reception at K of C Hall, Brooklyn, June 22, and President Sylvester J. Fogarty, of the De L'Epee Branch of the Xavier Allied organization, hummed an "Ever Thus" melody as he greeted the guests.

Whether or not a pastor is appointed, Rev. Father White, S. J., will celebrate Mass on Epiphany Sunday, August 24, the Feast Day of the Deaf, at St. Francis Xavier.

Preliminaries for holding a conference of the Catholic Deaf at St. Francis Xavier's around Epiphany Sunday are in the making. The object thereof is to consider a proposition of Mr. Philip Morin, president of St. Dominic Epiphany Center, of Albany, N. Y., for the unity and solidarity of all the deaf of the United States of America.

Miss May Austra, having done her share in War Work, Liberty Loan and W. S. S. Drives, to the credit of the Xavier Epiphany Society, will spend the Fourth at the Rockaways, and later sail for Worcester, Mass., on a visit to relatives.

At its June meeting the Xavier Epiphany Society donated $25 to a Fund to acquire a plot in the newly opened Catholic cemetery for the use of the indigent deaf.

S. W. J. D. NEWS.

On Friday night, June 20th, Dr. Harris Taylor, Principal of the Institution for the Improved Instruction of Deaf-Mutes, closed the series of addresses delivered at the S. W. J. D. Temple by visiting speakers.

The audience that assembled to greet Dr. Taylor was a record one.

The subject of Dr. Taylor's address was: "How to Fail in Life." He said that we have so long been taught how to succeed and yet have made so many failures, that he thought it was time to attack the problem from the other end. If we could but learn what things not to do and how not to conduct ourselves, we would then avoid the very things that cause our failures.

The lecture, which was extraordinarily instructive and really original, carried with it the greatest interest that the human element can bring into any discussion. Full of illustrations taken from life, replete with the spices of a cordial humor, and emanating from the rich experience of Dr. Taylor of making men and women out of pupils entrusted to his care, the address was one of the very best in all respects that have been delivered at the Communal Center.

On Sunday, June 22d, in her Brooklyn home, a reception was held in honor of Mrs. J. Karsidde's birthday anniversary and she received some very pretty presents. The couple will make their home in Brooklyn.

Last June 21st, 1919, Mr. Guss Bernhardt and Mr. Henry Melia, of New York, gave a reception in honor of their old friend, Mr. Hunt, of Brooklyn, on his 44th birthday. O'Brien and son, Anthony O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and sons, J. Hunt and Edward Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Karsidde, Mr. John Schneider, Mr. Ryan.

A surprise shower was given to Miss Susan Adeock, who is soon to become the bride of Thomas Cosgrove, at the home of Mrs. Gabriel, in Brooklyn, on the evening of Saturday, June 28th. Miss Adeock was completely surprised to get presents from her friends. A merry time followed the presentation. Among those present were: Mrs. Gabriel, Mrs. Mendell, Misses Elizabeth Anderson, Lucille Leff, Anna M. Klaus and her sister Martha, and the Mouton sisters.

Mrs. B. Elkin arranged a surprise party for Mrs. William Konkel (nee Miss Blanche Young), on June 22d. A splendid supper was served and a good time enjoyed. Hertzfeld, Rumpf, C. Muller and H. Thies.

On Tuesday, June 24th, Mr. Alexander L. Pach celebrated his 55th birthday. Mrs. Charles C. McMann celebrated her umpteenth birthday on the 30th of the same month. Mr. Charles C. McMann combined the two birthdays with a celebration at The Campus, 104th Street and Columbus Avenue, and this year's was a joyous event, as all present will testify.

The committee on games for the picnic and games of the New York Council, No. 2, K of D, on Saturday, July 12th, 1919, at Ulmer Park, have decided to enter the two-mile run, as twenty-three entries were received by Bro. J. Constantin last week, and expect more this week. Do not miss this excitement.

Harrison W. Leiter and wife (nee Cardell), spent a few days of their honeymoon trip in New York, as guests of the Hotel Pennsylvania. They were married in Philadelphia, June 8th, and are now en route to Chicago, where the groom is a bank attaché and also Grand Trustee of the N. F. S. D.

OHIO.

[News items for this column may be sent to our Ohio News Bureau, care of Mr. A. B. Greener, 998 Franklin Ave., Columbus, O.]

June 21, 1919.—Some years ago the Trustees of the Indiana School, it was announced, had chosen their Superintendent R. O. Johnson for life, and it was thought politics from that school had flown for good, and no more would the school be hampered with a new Superintendent, as it had gone through each change of political administration for a decade past. We do not recollect how long Mr. Johnson has served since his last election, but he was kept in his position under Democratic and Republican State administration until week before last, when there was a change of members made in the Board, and at its first meeting week before last Mr. Johnson was notified that his services would not be needed after July 1st.

Mrs. P. Gillooly and her son, Paul, will go to Cleveland June 28th, to remain six weeks with her parents and relatives. July 4th with her parents will motor to Columbus to spend a week with relatives, and then will motor to Woodlawn, Pa.

The citizens of Arlington and Grand View had a field day Saturday with a parade. The object was to raise funds for the Baby Camp and Camp Johnson. There were a number of floats in the parade, and Miss Ethel Zell as Miss Columbia occupied one.

Mr. B. M. Schowe, Employment Agent of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, of Akron, O., reached here Saturday from a trip in the interest of his firm. We were glad to meet and get acquainted with him. He reports business good in his line. He remained to attend the N. F. S. D. lawn fete in the evening.

Figuratively speaking, Summer and Winter joined hands for weal or woe the rest of their existence, when on Saturday morning Mr. R. H. Atwood, 81, and Miss Tracey E. Hall, 64, were married. The affair took place in the Superintendent's parlor in the presence of the household employees, Rev. M. Maurer of the First Congregational Church uniting them, and Mr. Jones doing the interpreting. They left at noon for Salem, Ohio, on a visit to the bride's sister. They will be at home at 838 Oak Street after August 1st. Mr. Atwood has been a teacher of the school since 1882. He had previously taught several years. Going to Arkansas, Miss Hall has been seamstress of the school for a long time.

Miss Mary Gillivan, who has seen service at the school for sixty-five years has been honorably retired, and will be allowed to make it her home free the remaining years of her life. She came from Ireland when fourteen years of age with her parents, and was first employed in the home of H. N. Hubbell, the first Superintendent of the school, as a nurse girl for his children. Later she received employment in the school by Dr. G. O. Fay and has been under every Superintendent since. Despite her age, nearly fourscore years, she is still active of mind and healthy looking.

The Columbus Branch of the N. A. D. held a meeting on the evening of the 10th inst. In the absence of the secretary and treasurer, both of whom have moved from the city, Miss Ethel Zell and Miss Cloa Lamson were chosen to fill the respective positions. After the routine business was disposed of, Dr. Patterson gave a talk about the N. A. D. In his opinion, the members talked much but accomplished little. What was wanted was work to attain objects sought. Start a propaganda and push things. The work should be done by members not affiliated with schools for deaf, and in its fight against the pure oral method, the oralists have the club against the Association of self interest, and hence the talk and arguments of the Association amounted to nothing. The membership should be increased, and every member should in some manner interest the hearing, and get them to assist in the work and also financially. That is what the oralists are doing, and that is why they are spreading out. The Secretary of the N. A. D. should be one who can devote his whole time to the work of the office, and should push things vigorously. It was decided to picnic at the School for the Deaf on Labor Day. Mr. Fred Schwartz was chosen Chairman of the General Committee, to be selected by himself. Every one from near and far is asked to come and assist in having a good time. There will be plenty to eat this time, so there will not be the disappointment experienced last year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, nee McFadden, now of Barrington, Ill., and former matron of the school, was in Columbus for some time last week, to visit a sister who was operated upon in a hospital. She was a passenger with us to Chicago Tuesday morning.

A hail storm which visited the South Western part of the country last week did havoc to growing vegetables. Messrs. Chris. Neuner and Reynolds lost nearly all their garden truck by it.

Mr. Chris. Neuner has received postal cards descriptive of Pekin, China; Seoul, Korea; Kyoto, Japan; Vana, Japan, from Mr. C. M. Rice and daughter, Delight, who were touring the countries during their vacation from the Manila School. They were to have returned to Manila June 3d.

Mr. Samuel W. Corbett, of Bell-air, Ohio, will probably after June 28th go to Mt. Clemens, Mich., to remain awhile.

During the Methodist Centenary Celebration, which begins in Columbus on the 20th inst., the school will board a large number of visitors.

The writer is off for rest and recreation in California, so the JOURNAL readers will miss the weekly letters for awhile, unless some one else cares to contribute news items, A. B. G.

WASHINGTON

Vacation time is here. Gallaudet College closed for the Summer this week and the Public Schools close a week later. Many will be leaving the city soon for all or part of the Summer. Here's hoping that all have an enjoyable summer.

The Gallaudet College Alumni Association of the District met at the charming home of Dr. and Mrs. Ely, on the 28th of May. Plans to honor Dr. Hotchkiss' fifty years as an instructor at Gallaudet had to be given up, as our good friend was too ill to be present.

The members sent him fifty lovely roses and greetings.

Friends of Miss Helen Northrop arranged a trip to Great Falls, in her honor, on the seventh of June.

Miss Talla Wilson has returned from Florida. She will spend the summer here and enter Gallaudet College in the Fall.

Mr. H. Pulver, who has been teaching in the Alabama School for the past two years, is here for the summer.

Mr. Owen Carrell is in the city, and it is understood that he intends to reside here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Souder expect soon to move into the house that they recently purchased on Ninth Street, Northeast.

Several visitors from Philadelphia spent last Sunday in Washington. Among them were Mr. John Roach and Mr. John Dailey.

Miss Sara Streby's sister, of Mississippi, departed for home, after a lengthy visit here.

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Merrill attended the wedding of Miss Gertrude Parker and Mr. William Salter, on the fourth of June, in Philadelphia. The wedding occurred in beautiful All Souls' Church. Rev. Mr. Merrill assisted Rev. Mr. Dantzer by the ceremony. Miss Parker is well known in Washington, where she spent many years in school and college.

Mrs. Merrill remained in Philadelphia to see the presentation of a handsome easy chair and a davenport to Rev. Mr. Dantzer, by his many friends, on his Fifteenth Anniversary as pastor of All Souls' Church.

Mrs. Robert Smoak and Mrs. W. Marshall went to Philadelphia for the day with Mrs. H. Merrill, a few weeks ago. They all had a very enjoyable visit and were glad to see their many friends again.

The lovely baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Edington died suddenly at Markham, Va., on the tenth of June. The funeral took place from Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Edington's home. Burial was in Glenwood Cemetery.

Local members of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf are planning to have a picnic at Glen Echo on the twenty-first of June.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Drake entertained the members of the Baptist Mission at their spacious home last Saturday evening.

Mr. W. E. Marshall took a trip to Fort Washington on a government boat, last Sunday. It was the first time that he had visited the fort.

Mrs. Rush, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Boland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brookmire are happy over the arrival of another grandchild.

The baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart was christened in Trinity Church on the first of June. She was given the pretty name of Margaret May, after an aunt.

On Wednesday, June 18th, during the closing exercises at Gallaudet College, our beloved friend, Dr. Hotchkiss, was presented with a handsome gold watch. The watch is the gift of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association in commemoration of the Doctor's fiftieth anniversary as a member of the Faculty of the College. Mr. H. D. Drake, as spokesman for the committee that selected the gift, made a very appropriate presentation speech, to which the Doctor, in spite of surprise and embarrassment, made a touching reply. The watch is a fine Waltham, and bears, besides Dr. Hotchkiss' monogram on the outside, an appropriate inscription on the inside cover. May both the watch and the Doctor keep good time for many years to come.

DETROIT.

New items of interest of the deaf of Michigan may be addressed to Mr. R. V. Jones, 374½ Louise Avenue, H. P. Pl., Detroit.

Have you joined the N. A. D? If not, why not?

A large number of Detroit mutes took in the reunion at Flint, June 13-16, and enjoyed meeting old friends and seeing old faces once more, though many of them could not see old places, as most of the old buildings passed away in a conflagration a year or so ago.

There was quite a large attendance, considering the war-time prices, and many small groups were observed lifting the curtains of the past, and revelling in the joys and sorrows of long ago, and now and then, with awed reverence, mentioning the name of some dear friend or classmate that had crossed into the unknown land, from which no traveler returns.

All the meetings were held in Brown Hall Chapel, and a splendid program was pulled off each day, with great credit to the Michigan Association, and they were highly enjoyed by all who were present.

The Michigan Association appropriated $100 from their treasury for the benefit of the N. A. D. Convention Fund, the same to be held in trust till near convention time and then turned over to the committee.

They also raised about $160 from the proceeds of the picnic which was held near the creek back of the school, Saturday afternoon and evening. This will also be held in trust for the N. A. D. Convention Fund.

As secretary of the Local Committee, I wish to take this opportunity to extend the heartfelt thanks of the whole committee for the magnificent gift of the Michigan Association, and to assure them that their act will put fresh determination into every member of the committee to carry the preparations for the convention to a glorious success.

It was my good fortune to be present at the Sunday services, held in Brown Hall Chapel, last Sunday, after thirty years' absence from the dear old school, and I cannot remember when I was touched so deeply, or so greatly impressed, as I was by the prayer of Mr. Hubbard and the sermon of Mr. Collins Sawhill, which was so appropriately concluded by the rendition of the hymn, "Abide With Me," by a young lady, whose name I cannot recall.

Mr. Sawhill took for his text, "It is but a step between me and death," illustrating his sermon by portraying the "Grim Reaper" stalking our every movement, with his hand outstretched to snuff out the flame of life without a moment's notice. He spoke of the sudden passing of his friend and adviser, Rev. B. R. Allabough, giving a beautiful picture of his useful life and driving home the fact that death is no respecter of persons, with a graphic account of the sudden death of his friend, admonishing us, at the conclusion of every telling point, to "Watch and Pray."

Sunday afternoon a memorial service was held at the groves of Messrs. Brown and Buchanan, and the other old teachers of the school in the cemetery, and in the evening moving pictures from films of the National Association of the Deaf, were shown in Brown Hall Chapel.

The ball game between the Flint Social Club nine and the D. A. D. boys was won by Flint, with the score of 9 to 8.

It was a close game, and the Detroiters are warming up to have their revenge on the 4th of July.

On Monday evening, the Flint Division, N. F. S. D., gave a banquet at the Dryden Hotel, and those who stayed over to the end attended and had a good feed at $1.50 per plate, with a good time thrown in.

On Friday evening, June 6th, a jolly crowd gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Allera, in honor of her passing her 42d mile-post on life's highway, and a glorious good time was had by everybody.

Ice-cream and cake was served for refreshments, and Mrs. A. was the recipient of several handsome presents, among which was $8.00 in the coin of the realm.

Mr. Fred Terrell, of Toronto, Canada, was a visitor at the club rooms last week. He says he will probably visit New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia, sometime next week, if circumstances permit.

Eddie Baker has returned to town, after an extended stay in the Empire State.

He reports that he took in the sights of New York, Brooklyn and Buffalo, and is now in search of employment in the convention city.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Caro, who were spending their honeymoon in the Convention City, were given a fine wedding supper, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Heymannson, under the management of Messrs. Arthur Meek and Simon Himmelschein.

Quite a number of friends were present, and a good time enjoyed by all.

The affair took place during the street car strike, and Mr. Ben Bear placed his car and services at the disposal of the party.

Mr. Philip Bassel, of New York City, was in the city for a week's visit, and after having a good time among friends, left for Chicago, on the 9th inst.

Push for the Convention. If you can't push, pull, and if you can't pull, get out of the way, and let the hustlers get by.

Messrs. Leo. Kuhn, Henry Frohm and Fred Moehlenbrink, got up in the wee small hours of the morning, last Saturday, and started with high spirits and a motor car for one of Michigan's many inland lakes, expecting to emulate Isaac Walton, but the end of the day brought them home with big appetites and tales of what they could have caught, if the fish would only bite.

Mrs. John Menzie has returned from a four months' sojourn in St. Petersburg, Fla., where she reports she had a splendid time. She stopped off for a day in Chattanooga, Tenn., on her way back, and after taking in the sights resumed her homeward journey, arriving on May 18th, looking the perfect picture of health.

Master Roy Friday, who has been visiting with his brother Ivor since school closed, left for Chicago, June 24th, where his parents have lately moved, and will attend the Jacksonville School for the Deaf this fall.

Mrs. Ashley Mickenham is visiting with her mother at the home of her aunt in Toledo, O., where she expects to stay for two weeks. She writes that she is having a good time all around.

The Detroit Division, No. 2, N. F. S. D., will have an excursion on the steamer City of Toledo, on August 3d next, to Sugar Island, where they will hold an all-day basket picnic in conjunction with the Division from Toledo, Ohio.

Field day events, prize games, will constitute the amusement program, and a good time is promised to all who attend.

Boat leaves Detroit at 8:40 A.M., and returning, leaves Sugar Island at 5:30 P.M. Come and bring your family and friends with you, and enjoy a fine outing and the cool lake breeze. The bigger the crowd, the merrier the day.

Our sympathies are extended to our old friend David Turell, who lost his father on May 23d last, through old age and heart failure.

He has one sister in Detroit, and three brothers in Canada.

Mrs. Fred Toelner, of Angola, N. Y., is visiting for a month with Mr. and Mrs. James Henderson, 387 Philadelphia Avenue E.

Mrs. Henderson's sister, Miss Matilda Betzler, of Calumet, Mich., is also visiting with her, and will remain all summer.

Our son, Harry R. Jones, was united in marriage, on June 18th, to Miss Opal Glynn, of Topeka, Kansas, at the home of the bride's parents, and will be at home after July 15th, at 909 Dewey Avenue, Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

Our son, Frank J. Jones, will lead to the altar, on July 3d, Miss Daisy Palmateer, of Battle Creek, Mich., and will make his home in the Food City.

Both boys were in the service during the war, Harry serving with the Signal Corps in the South, while Frank went to France with the 85th Division.

Mr. Geo. T. Ashley, President of the Flint Club, and Joseph Pastori, will soon take a trip to New York, and the Adirondack Mountains, on a camping and trout fishing vacation.

We hope they will bring back a long string of fish (stories) with them.

About 70 people gathered in the club rooms of the Flint Social Club, of Tuesday evening, June 10th, and gave a shower party to Miss Strand and Mr. Wm. Behrent. A fine time was had, and numerous presents were showered upon the young couple, who expect to get married in July.

About ten people participated in an informal basket picnic on Belle Island last Sunday, where the day was passed away from the heat of the city. A good time was had by all present. ROBERT V. JONES.

SUNDRY NOTES.

Sunday morning, June 15th, "Rex," accompanied by a big course of Greensburgers, left on an excursion train for Altoona, Pa. Undoubtedly the excursionists enjoyed a good view of the scenic West Shore Railroad Curve on this trip, and on arriving at the "Mountain City," about 11:30 o'clock, they straightway took street cars for Lakemount Park, where the day was delightfully spent in rest and recreation. The park, in the mountainous valley is grand beyond description, and is replete with all outdoor sports as well as moving picture shows which are of real enjoyment for those toward evening the vast throng returned home over the famous Horse Shoe Railroad Curve, which, doubtless, was quite a revelation to the excursionists. "Rex" will in all probability make another trip by next Fall, if railroad rates will be reduced again. Needless to say that the trip over the road was truly an enjoyable one.

PITTSBURG.

School vacations in every corner of this old U. S. A. have already made a good start. Only our friends in Louisiana are "keeping school" these summer days. The Edgewood School closed on June 18th without an outbreak of some contagious disease, that had been the rule for several years previous. The "jink" concluded it had more important business elsewhere, we suppose. A class of ten, six boys and four girls, had the pleasure of receiving their diplomas in the presence of the public. Four from the class, two girls, Mildred Brown and Almira Carlisle and two boys, Harry V. Zahn and Geo. T. Greco, received prizes awarded for meritorious records the past year, by the Alumni Association of the Institution. This was something new at least, and may lead to something more along the same line in the future.

Miss Rose Carlier, who had been supervisor's assistant for several years, quietly stole away with her fiancé, Mr. Walter Bosworth, two days before the close of school, and they were as quietly married the same day at the bride's home in Swissvale. Prof. Roberts interpreting the service. Only a very few close friends were let in on this sudden move on the part of the young couple, so it was quite a surprise, because of its suddenness, to a large circle of friends. Congratulations were none the less sincere on that account however. After a honeymoon at various summer resorts, the couple will be at home to their friends in Swissvale after August 1st.

Mr. Charles D. Seaton, teacher at Romney, W. Va. and editor of the Tablet, was a visitor in Pittsburgh and vicinity June 19th and 20th. He missed getting here in time for the closing exercises at the school by just five minutes. He was taken in hand by his friends, including Mr. Teegarden, Mr. Gray, Mr. Leitner and others, and seemed to enjoy the visit greatly, as it was the first time he had been able to see much of the city and her people. He had been almost persuaded to make Wilksburg his future home, but his Romney friends held on too tight for him to make the move comfortably. While in the city he attended the Frat social, which was in the form of a mock trial, and he was chosen to preside as Judge of the Court, and made friends by the impartiality of his rulings and the justice of his verdict. As it was a case of "heart balm," there were many doubtful points to settle.

The bench was ably assisted by the great acumen of the jury, which was composed of such local luminaries as George Voegelé, Mrs. Jno. French, Mrs. Geo. Winch, Joseph Atcheson, Wm. Sawhill and J. K. Forbes. The entire proceedings were thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd assembled from the whole Pittsburgh district. Mike Gormley, formerly of Oil City, now of Akron, was observed in the throng. Wm. Stewart, of Connelville, and others from an equal distance, were also there. Thus Mr. Seaton had a chance to get acquainted with many of Pittsburgh's representatives. Hope he'll come again.

William Lemmon, who lost his mother recently and, because of the breaking up of his home, is planning to go to Washington State, in the vicinity of Walla Walla, to live with his brother, who has a ranch and fruit orchards there.

Mrs. Lily Haney (nee Divins), of Bethlehem, was here recently on account of the death of her mother, who lived in Homestead. Mrs. Haney remained with her sister in Wilksburg for some time.

Charles and Herman Cook, and the latter's little son, were in Turtle Creek, Sunday, June 23d, to attend the obsequies of their uncle, Dr. C. M. Sease, a prominent physician and surgeon of that place. They stopped off at Wilksburg a few minutes to call on friends on their way back home—long enough for Herman to explain what he and others were doing to halt the pernicious motor vehicle bill, which aims at depriving deaf drivers of the use of their own machines.

Miss Susan Campbell has returned from a visit with her friend, Miss Margaret Hahn, of Titusville.

Carter Cummings, of Swissvale, has been on the sick list for some time lately. At last accounts he was improving slowly.

Mr. McLeod Blair, formerly of the North Side, is now a denizen of Burgettstown and a mail carrier in that vicinity. It is understood that he attends to the rural delivery and likes his job, as it takes him outdoors and his health is bettered thereby.

Sergeant Brewster Randall Sawhill, Co. D, 311th Machine Gun Battalion of the 79th Division, is home from overseas and bringing joy to the parents, W. L. and Mrs. Sawhill, and their friends, in that he is in the pink of health and looking every inch the soldier after all his hazardous experiences in France. After thoroughly resting up it is probable he will go back to his old job in Akron, O. That is not far away and his parents will see him often in the future.

Sergeant Dwight L. Bardes, after a few weeks at his old position with the Gas Company here, was called by telegraph to a wholly new position in Kansas City, Mo., and left on a twenty-four hours notice. His wife and infant son followed him a week later, and they report they like the new location and expect to make it their permanent home.

Haying in this vicinity, especially at the Edgewood School, is rushing some, as the crop is good and all hands are on the job; so it happened when J. C. Craig was a-top of a huge load of hay on a rigged-up one-horse cart, he got a shaking up when the horse and the flies got frisky. It ended with a head-on dive from the load to the ground in a shower of hay. The plunge was enjoyed by the spectators as there was not much damage done, except to the farmer boy's dignity.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE.

THE CLOSE OF COLLEGE

The Baccalaureate Sermon was given by a young minister, Rev. David Hughes Edwards, on the afternoon of the 15th.

The closing party of the year took the form of a "Farewell Social," under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., on Tuesday evening, the 17th from 7.30 to 9.30. Games and conversation passed the time very pleasantly. Afterwards refreshments of ice-cream and cakes were served. At the close of the evening, Mr. Roberts mounted the platform, and, in a few well-chosen words, presented to the boys' Head Senior, Mr. Burns, a handsome silver shaving set, as a token of appreciation from the young men of the College. It was thus that the boys chose to recognize Mr. Burns' untiring service in college affairs during his stay here as a student.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

The final exercises on the morning of June 18th were simple yet impressive. Before presenting the degrees, Dr. Hall made several announcements and awards. An important announcement in regard to degrees was made. The Faculty has decided that, beginning with the graduating class of 1921, the degrees of B.L. and B.Ph. shall no longer be awarded to graduates. But two degrees can be awarded for work done in the regular course, B.A. and B.S., both to be considered of equal importance.

The awards announced were: For best work done in the Preparatory Class, a prize of five dollars: Robert Kannappel.

For best kept rooms: GIRLS—1. Misses Wallace and Kau, $5.00; 2. Misses Linton and Toner, $2.50

BOYS—1. Messrs. Barnett and Hetzler, $5.00; 2. Messrs. McNeal and Mackowski, $2.50

Prizes awarded by Miss Peet for essays on "The Value of the Study of Latin," open to the Freshmen Class:

1. Mr. Wesley Lauritsen, a book.

2. Mr. Dewey Deer, a book.

The Veditz prize of $5.00 for the best work in Senior French:

Miss Jeanette Wolverton.

AWARDING OF DEGREES

Dr. Hall then announced that Grover Cleveland Farquhar, B.A., 1913, had presented a satisfactory thesis for the degree of M.A. and was awarded that degree. Following this, degrees were awarded to the graduating class:

Certificate of Graduation—Misses Wallace and Atkins.

Bachelor of Philosophy—Miss Watts, Miss Kallenbach, Mr. Hetzler, Mr. Dohrmann and Mr. Ferguson.

Bachelor of Arts—Miss Kau, Miss Wolverton, Mr. Burns, Mr. Peard, Mr. Osborne, Mr. Ozler.

Finally came the surprise of the program. Prof. Drake took the platform, and in behalf of the Alumni Association presented Dr. Hotchkiss with a splendid Waltham watch, to commemorate the completion of his fiftieth year as an instructor at Gallaudet. In accepting the gift, Dr. Hotchkiss, with customary modesty, refused to take the entire credit for his successful life work as a teacher of the Deaf.

He pointed to the portrait of his beloved friend, Dr. E. M. Gallaudet, spoke of the inspiration and encouragement which Dr. Gallaudet had been to him, and gave to Dr. Gallaudet the chief credit for his own success.

This summer sees a larger number of the students remain in Washington than ever before. Some half-dozen have secured temporary positions in various Government departments, others are employed in the city, while almost a dozen more are employed in various capacities about Kendall Green.
